

Hospitality and leisure

With Oman's current focus on the tourism sector, this is just the line of work for many youngsters. Job opportunities in this sector are expected to boom.

Not many careers offer the opportunity to travel - tourism is truly special in that regard. Whether you pursue a future as a flight attendant, tour guide or travel agent, these jobs will one day take you to places you can only dream of right now.

One of the best things about travelling is meeting people from all walks of life. When you work in the tourism industry, this becomes a daily reality!
