NHI student gets diploma

A very happy Ajay Barua flanked by the general manager of Grand Millennium, Luca Medda, and National Hospitality Institute (NHI) principal, Robert Maclean, received his Hospitality Management Diploma from the American Hotel & Lodging Educational Institute.

The qualification consists of 12 individual modules covering Sales and Marketing, Finance, Food and Beverage, Facilities

Management, HACCP and more. Barua has taken up the position of front office executive at the Grand Millennium and is delighted to have achieved his diploma and taken the first step of his career. Students studying for this can go on to a higher level and achieve a degree in hospitality at one of the two associated NHI schools in Switzerland and Mumbai. NHI is enrolling for this programme now, for September.
